Forecast For Southwest England
Issued by Met Office Exeter
at 0400 on Tuesday 07 Dec 2021

++ Valid for broadcast between 0600 and 1800

Headline:
Storm Barra arrives bringing very strong winds.

Today:
Turning exceptionally windy, particularly across north and west facing coasts, with large waves throughout the day. Cloudy with outbreaks of heavy rain, turning brighter in the afternoon with blustery showers of rain and hail. Feeling cold for most. Maximum temperature 10 deg C (50 deg F).

Tonight:
Remaining very windy, especially across the west, with clear spells and frequent heavy showers of rain and hail. Drier in the east. Minimum temperature 1 deg C (34 deg F).

Wednesday:
Another very windy day with Storm Barra continuing to bring outbreaks of heavy rain, these most frequent in western and coastal areas. Maximum temperature 8 deg C (46 deg F).

Outlook for Thursday to Saturday:
A drier, calmer and possibly brighter day on Thursday. Turning breezy with some rain in places on Friday. Milder on Saturday, though largely cloudy with further rain possible.

(C) Crown Copyright 2021. Published by the Met Office.